

ACOLA project: Enhancing research outcomes from Australia's regional, rural and remote universities

Submission cover page

Statement of Consent

Submissions to the Australian Council of Learned Academies (ACOLA) project on enhancing research outcomes from Australia's regional, rural and remote universities will be acknowledged in the final report through publication of the organisational affiliation without listing contributing individuals, unless otherwise specified by the individual providing the submission.

Please indicate your consent for acknowledgement of your institution in the final report:

- I give consent for ACOLA to publish the organisational affiliation of this submission in the final report that will be freely available
 - I do not give consent for ACOLA to publish the organisational affiliation of this submission in the final report and understand that any data I provide will be de-identified prior to use
 - I do not give consent for ACOLA to publish the organisational affiliation, however I give consent for ACOLA to publish my name in the final report that will be freely available
 - Other. Please specify:
-

In some cases, ACOLA may wish to learn more about the issues presented in written submissions. Please indicate if you consent to ACOLA contacting you for further information related to this project:

- I agree that ACOLA can contact me for follow up information in relation to this research activity.
- I do not agree that ACOLA can contact me for follow up information in relation to this research activity.

Statement of Confidentiality

With permission, submissions may be published on the ACOLA website. Please indicate whether you provide consent to publish your submission on the ACOLA website:

- I consent to this submission being published on the ACOLA website
- I do not consent to this submission being published on the ACOLA website
- I would like to be contacted to confirm consent prior to this submission being published on the ACOLA website

